

BANANE- SALES REP JOB DESCRIPTION

Plant-based Haitian Food

Location: Various farmers markets and community events throughout Los Angeles County. Mileage is reimbursed for travel between the kitchen and market locations.

Hours: 6–15 hours/biweekly (hours vary based on event schedule)

Organizational Overview: Established in 2021 in Los Angeles, California, BANANE is an ode to Haitian cuisine and is here to enhance our community's lifestyle through traditional Haitian food with a hint of 21st-century plant-based realness.

About the Role:

We're seeking Part-Time Sales Representatives to represent BANANE at farmers markets and community events. This role is ideal for someone who enjoys connecting with people, working independently, and supporting a growing food business.

Responsibilities:

- Set up and break down tents, tables, and displays
- Sell products, distribute samples, and engage customers
- Process transactions and accurately report sales
- Maintain inventory and communicate product needs
- Represent the BANANE brand professionally at all events

Compensation:

- $18.42/hour + tips
- Mileage reimbursement for travel between the kitchen and market locations

Qualifications:

- Wednesday, Saturday, and Sunday availability
- Personable and confident speaking with customers
- Consistently punctual and reliable
- Ability to set up and break down pop-up equipment
- Ability to lift and carry up to 40 pounds
- Self-motivated and independent
- Solution-focused attitude
- Reliable vehicle required for driving to markets

Perks: 25% discount on BANANE products

Start Date: ASAP