

BANANE- MARKET CREW JOB DESCRIPTION

Plant-based Haitian Food

Organizational Overview: Established in 2021 in Los Angeles California, BANANE is an ode to Haitian cuisine and is here to enhance our community's lifestyle through traditional Haitian food with a hint of 21st century plant-based realness.

Position Description: We're seeking a dependable and hands-on Market Crew member to support BANANE's farmers market and popup operations. This role is ideal for someone reliable, physically capable, and comfortable working early mornings and split shifts.

You'll play a key role in transporting products and equipment, setting up and breaking down our market booth, and supporting essential operational tasks before and after markets.

Candidate Traits: The ideal candidate(s) is

- Consistently punctual and reliable
 - Physically capable and safety-conscious
 - Self-motivated and able to work independently
 - Solution-focused and adaptable in fast-paced environments
 - Comfortable with early mornings and split shifts
 - Interest in small business, food, or community-based work
 - Weekend availability (especially Sunday)

Hours: approximately 5-8 hours per week

Payment: $140 flat day rate (labor and gas included)

Responsibilities include:

- Tent – Set up, maintain, and break down 10x10 market tent
- Logistics – Load, transport, and unload equipment, products, and supplies
- Operations – Assist with packing, organizing, and storing market materials
- Post-Market – Return equipment and leftover product to kitchen or storage
- Maintenance – Empty hand-washing stations and ensure proper storage of equipment

Physical requirements::

- Ability to lift and carry up to 60+ lbs

Perks:

- 25% discount on BANANE products

Start Date: ASAP